

FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT SCROLL 3

PEACE — WISDOM THAT STOPS WAR

Witness: Abigail

Spirit Utterance

Peace is not weakness.

Peace is strength under control.

Peace does not surrender truth.

Peace carries truth without unnecessary conflict.

The strongest person in the room is often the one who knows how to stop a battle before it begins.

Kingdom Lesson

Many know how to fight.

Few know how to restore.

Many know how to speak.

Few know how to calm a storm.

The Kingdom advances through truth, but wisdom determines how truth is delivered.

Peace is not the absence of conflict.

Peace is the presence of heavenly order in the midst of conflict.

1 Samuel 25:32–33

"Blessed be YHWH Elohim of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me:
And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this

Psalms 34:14

"Seek peace, and pursue it."

Isaiah 26:3

"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee."

3 Nephi 11:29

"He that hath the spirit of contention is not of me."

 Kingdom Reflection

Abigail entered a situation that was already moving toward bloodshed.

David was angry.

Nabal was foolish.

Servants were afraid.

The conflict had already begun.

Yet Abigail stepped into the gap with wisdom.

She did not inflame the situation.

She did not add fuel to the fire.

She brought understanding where there was anger.

Because of her actions, a battle never happened.

Abigail teaches that peace is not passive.

Peace is active wisdom that preserves life and protects covenant.

The fruit appeared before the disaster.

✂ Mantle Connection

Peace stabilizes every mantle.

The teacher needs peace to instruct patiently.

The watchman needs peace to warn without panic.

The warrior needs peace to fight only when necessary.

The scribe needs peace to record truth without bitterness.

The builder needs peace to unite people around a common purpose.

Without peace, mantles become reactionary.

With peace, mantles become effective.

Peace allows Kingdom function to operate without being controlled by emotion.

Bring peace into one situation this week.

Listen before speaking.

Understand before reacting.

Seek restoration before escalation.

Become a source of order where confusion exists.

 Chamber Seal

Peace is not the avoidance of responsibility.

Peace is the wisdom to carry responsibility without creating unnecessary conflict.

Those who walk in peace become trusted with greater influence.

For peace preserves what anger often destroys.

And the mantle is strongest in the hands of one who knows how to stop a war before it begins.
