

SCROLL OF SPECIALIZATION

The Hall of Purpose

Not every servant is assigned the same work.

The Kingdom is one body with many functions.

One teaches.

One records.

One watches.

One heals.

One builds.

One shepherds.

One serves.

One defends.

The difference does not create division.

The difference creates strength.

A city is not built by walls alone.

A kingdom is not sustained by kings alone.

Every function has its place.

Every mantle has its purpose.

Every servant has an assignment.

The wise servant does not seek another man's calling.

The wise servant discovers his own.

Many enter the Kingdom.

Few understand where they fit within it.

Specialization is the process of understanding how the Father has equipped you to serve.

Some are drawn toward teaching.

Some toward healing.

Some toward records.

Some toward justice.

Some toward service.

Some toward leadership.

Some toward protection.

The purpose of specialization is not status.

The purpose of specialization is effectiveness.

The Kingdom advances when every servant understands his function and operates faithfully within it.

A hammer is not less valuable than a plow.

A watchman is not greater than a shepherd.

A servant is not lower than a king.

Every function becomes valuable when it operates under the Mind of Christ.

Therefore enter this hall with humility.

Study the witnesses.

Observe the armor.

Examine the mantles.

Consider the fruit.

Seek understanding.

Then discover where your gifts, character, and calling meet.

For where purpose and obedience unite, there the servant becomes effective.

 SPECIALIZATION SEAL

Fruit forms the servant.

Mantles reveal the function.

Armor prepares the worker.

Specialization sharpens the assignment.

Not every servant carries the same burden.

Not every servant walks the same path.

But all serve the same King.
