

THE COVENANT WALKER

The gate has been entered.

Now walk worthy of the covenant.

This card represents the participant after repentance, baptism, and receiving the Holy Spirit.

They are no longer standing at the gate.

They are walking through it.

THE COVENANT WALKER

The water is behind you.

The covenant is before you.

The Spirit has entered the temple.

Now comes the walk.

For many desire the gate.

Few desire the path.

Many celebrate beginnings.

Few endure the journey.

But the covenant walker understands that baptism was not the destination.

It was the entrance.

The covenant walker rises each day with purpose.

Not because life becomes easy.

But because the Kingdom becomes greater than comfort.

They continue when others quit.

They remain when others wander.

They obey when others compromise.

They trust when others fear.

For covenant is not proven in moments.

It is proven in consistency.

The covenant walker learns to carry burdens.

To serve quietly.

To forgive freely.

To love sincerely.

To endure faithfully.

They understand that every trial can become training.

Every storm can become instruction.
Every assignment can become preparation.
The covenant walker does not walk alone.
The Holy Spirit leads.
The word guides.
Christ stands as the example.
Thus the journey continues.
From gate to gate.
From glory to glory.
From faith to faith.
Until the covenant becomes character.
And character becomes legacy.
Walk therefore in the covenant.
Stand firm in the truth.
Serve in humility.
Endure in faith.
And finish the path that TMH has set before you.
For the covenant was never merely about entering the gate.
It was about becoming the person who keeps walking after the gate has opened.
