THE SPIRIT-FILLED

The waters have closed behind you.

The covenant has been made.

The old man has been buried.

The path has been chosen.

But now a greater gift is offered.

For the covenant was never meant to end at the water.

The vessel must be filled.

The temple must receive fire.

The disciple must learn to walk with the Spirit of TMH.

For many receive instruction from men.

But the Spirit-Filled learn instruction from heaven.

The Holy Spirit teaches.

The Holy Spirit warns.

The Holy Spirit comforts.

The Holy Spirit corrects.

The Holy Spirit reveals.

The Holy Spirit remembers.

The Holy Spirit testifies of Christ.

The Spirit-Filled learn to hear before they speak.

They learn to pray before they move.

They learn to discern before they judge.

They learn to obey before they understand.
For the Spirit does not lead according to the wisdom of the world.
The Spirit leads according to the wisdom of heaven.
Sometimes the Spirit says go.
Sometimes the Spirit says stay.
Sometimes the Spirit says speak.
Sometimes the Spirit says remain silent.
The disciple who learns the voice of the Spirit cannot be easily deceived.
For discernment becomes their shield.
Truth becomes their foundation.
Love becomes their witness.
Power becomes their assignment.
The Spirit-Filled do not seek signs.
They seek the presence of TMH.
And from that presence comes wisdom.
From that wisdom comes strength.
From that strength comes endurance.
From that endurance comes fruit.
For the purpose of the Spirit is not merely power.
It is transformation.
The Spirit writes the law upon the heart.
The Spirit cleanses the inner man.
The Spirit turns knowledge into understanding.
The Spirit turns belief into conviction.
The Spirit turns servants into witnesses.
Walk therefore in the Spirit.
Follow the fire.

Learn the voice.

Trust the Guide.

For the same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead now seeks to dwell within the covenant walker.
