

😊 FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT SCROLL 2

JOY — PRAISE BEFORE DELIVERANCE

Witness: David

🔥 Spirit Utterance

Joy is not the absence of trouble.

Joy is the presence of trust.

Joy sings before the battle is over.

Joy worships before the answer arrives.

Joy remembers the goodness of Elohim while standing in the middle of the storm.

📖 Kingdom Lesson

Many rejoice after victory.

Few rejoice while waiting for it.

The Kingdom is built by those who can carry joy through affliction.

Joy is not rooted in circumstances.

Joy is rooted in confidence.

The heart that remembers the goodness of Elohim can remain joyful even in difficult seasons.

👑 Kingdom Reflection

David knew caves before he knew crowns.

He knew rejection before he knew honor.

He knew pursuit before he knew peace.

Yet throughout his journey, songs continued to rise from his lips.

David learned that joy was not something that appeared after the battle.

Joy was something carried through the battle.

His worship became a witness.

His praise became a weapon.

His joy became strength.

The fruit appeared before the throne.

✂️ Mantle Connection

Joy strengthens every mantle.

The teacher needs joy to continue teaching.

The watchman needs joy to continue watching.

The builder needs joy to continue building.
The warrior needs joy to continue standing.
The scribe needs joy to continue recording truth.
Without joy, burdens become heavy.
With joy, service becomes sustainable.
Joy gives endurance to the mantle.

Chamber Seal

Joy is not produced by comfort.
Joy is produced by confidence in the Most High.
Those who learn to rejoice before deliverance discover a strength that circumstances cannot steal.

For joy is the fruit that sustains the journey,
and the strength that carries the mantle.
